

WOULD FORCE A LICENSE.

Sanborn Seeks a Writ of Certiorari Against the Excise Board.

Justice Fitzsimmons, of the City Court, appeared before Judge Bischoff in the Court of Common Pleas today on an order to show cause why a writ of mandamus should not be issued compelling him as a Justice of the City Court to issue a writ of certiorari in the case of Henry Sanborn against the Board of Excise Commissioners. Sanborn's application for a license for a saloon at 225 Tenth avenue was refused by the Excise Board on the ground that his saloon would make the fourth corner.

Sanborn desired to appeal the case, and applied to Justice Fitzsimmons for a writ reviewing the Excise Board's decision.

In the Court of Common Pleas today Justice Fitzsimmons said that personally he would be only too glad to grant the writ, but as a Justice of the City Court he doubted his authority in the matter. Judge Bischoff reserved decision.

Yonahs Discards the New Law.

When Kate Yonah, of 144 Cherry street, and Mary Maloney, of 45 Cayuga street, were arraigned before Justice Voorhis in the Tombs Court this morning on the charge of soliciting, the Justice recognized them as two prisoners he had sent to the workhouse two days previously. "This new law of cumulative penalties is not working right," said Justice Voorhis. "As I think you need a lesson and the negligent island officials should be in some way officially reprimanded, as it were, I will make use of the full limit of the law today each on the island."

The above are the most serviceable colored shoes, will wear as long as black ones, and require less care. No child should be without them at this time of the year. As a summer vacation shoe, either for mountain or seaside, they have no equal, and even for city use they will prove to be the most dressy and economical for all-around usage.

CAUTION—Having no agencies or branch stores, my shoes cannot be purchased at any other dealer.

Men's and Boy's Summer Clothing.

A few words on the prices—OUR PRICES. They are based on the same small advance of cost as the thousand and one other stocks we sell. The vast difference between them and exclusive clothing-store prices will readily be seen by making the comparison. As to quality, we keep only the best.

On certain occasions we make sweeping reductions from regular prices. This sale is not only an example, but the values are AB-SOLUTELY WITHOUT PRECE-DENT.
